

The dataset comprises of medication for treatment of squamous cell carcinoma on 249 mice with range of drug regimens. The effect of these drugs over period of time on tumor volume were tabulated.

It can be seen that for most of the drugs the tumor size reduces over period of time. Also, the tumor volume goes up with the weight of mice as shown below.

